

Ms. Christine Eibs Singer

Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer E+Co

Christine Eibs Singer, E+Co's Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, is responsible for the vision and strategy behind E+Co's mission to create energy enterprises that alleviate poverty and protect the planet. She has over 20 years of experience in successful implementation of public-private partnership and regularly shares her knowledge and best practices with other thought leaders in this sector. Prior to co-establishing E+Co, Christine spent more than 10 years at the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, concentrating on the development of public-private partnerships and is a graduate of Douglass College and the Eagleton Institute of Politics, Rutgers University. In 2007, she received the Woman of Inspiration Award from Fairleigh Dickinson University. A seasoned public speaker, Christine has presented at the 2008 Skoll World Forum, Washington International Renewable Energy Conference, the inaugural Clinton Global Initiative University, and the PRI Makers Conference. She serves on the steering committee and is a founding member of the Aspen Institute's "Aspen Network for Development Entrepreneurs" (ANDE).