

Mr. V Subramanian

Secretary General & CEO, Indian Wind Energy Association

Mr. V. Subramanian retired from the Indian Administrative Service from the post of Secretary to the Government in the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy. He is currently the Secretary General and CEO of Indian Wind Energy Association. Subramanian played a pioneering role formulation of the Generation Based Incentive (GBI) scheme for windfarms that may get implemented on a larger scale. He has a rich and varied experience in Finance, Aviation, Tourism, Power and Labour.