

Ms. Virginia Sonntag-O'Brien

Executive Secretary, Renewable Energy Policy Network for the 21st Century (REN21)

Virginia Sonntag-O'Brien is the Executive Secretary of REN21 - Renewable Energy Global Policy Network for the 21st Century. She also jointly coordinates the UNEP Sustainable Energy Finance Initiative, a platform providing financiers with the tools, support, and global network needed to conceive and manage investments in clean energy technologies.

She was formerly the Director of BASE, a UNEP Collaborating Centre in Basel, Switzerland that focuses on mobilising investment in energy efficiency and renewable energy. She began her work in the international energy and climate field heading the European Cities for Climate Protection Campaign, a program run by ICLEI.
